2026–2027 Enrichment & ECA Programme

At Rome International School, we believe learning thrives beyond the classroom. Our expanded Enrichment and Extra-Curricular Activity (ECA) Programme offers students of all ages the chance to challenge themselves, build lasting friendships, and explore new talents in a fun, supportive environment.

Our Core Offering

- Middle School Enrichment (Wednesdays, 13:55–15:45) All Middle School students dedicate Wednesday afternoons to a specialist pathway of their choice to build teamwork, leadership, and resilience.
  - Pathways include: Sports, Creative & Performing Arts, Robotics & Coding, Model United Nations (MUN), and the Duke of Edinburgh International Award (DofE).
- Enrichment Clubs (No Charge) Teacher-led clubs running during lunchtimes and after school, built entirely around student hobbies and interests.
- RIS Sports Academy (€60 per sport) High School students can join our competitive teams for Volleyball, Basketball, or Football. Fee includes personalised team kit, referee fees, and tournament organization for local and regional matches.
- After-School Activities (Paid) An exciting array of afternoon clubs covering sports, creative arts, technology, languages, wellbeing, and academics.
- Specialist Programmes (Paid)
  - Private Music Tuition: Individual lessons scheduled during or after school for Piano, Guitar, Drums, Voice, and DJing.
  - LAMDA Academy: Public speaking, acting, and performance training leading to internationally recognised qualifications.

Specialist Pathways: MUN & DofE
